Attainment of Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes

- The institution uses direct tools such as class tests, assignments, skill modules, and university examinations to evaluate Course Outcomes.
- Programme Outcomes are assessed through indirect tools like alumni feedback, surveys, and employer input.
- Attainment levels of POs and COs are compared against predefined benchmarks and shared with stakeholders.
- The institution uses the evaluation results to refine teaching methodologies and curricula, ensuring continuous improvement.
- Regular reviews by faculty and administration ensure that POs and COs remain relevant and impactful.
